RADUATING CLASS

I.BURTON HIGH SCHOOL

WISE COUNTY
PUBLIC LIBRARY
WISE, VIRGINIA

Because he is our friend—encouraging, advising, and lending his warm understanding when we need him . . .

Because he has guided us enthusiastically and often lent us desire for success . . .

Because he is a teacher unprecedented, who arouses in his students a new faith in their own ability, who infuses a love of truth and honor, and who, by the sincere dedication of his own brilliance, has inspired those about him . . .

Because of his many and varied contributions to our High School and the influence he has had on our lives, we are exceedingly proud to dedicate this 1960 "Tendrils" to ——

Mr. Charles A. Absher, Jr.

The Clock Tower of the John I. Burton High School is a monument to the students of this school who lost their lives in the wars of the past half century.

FOREWORD

As we leaf through the pages of this book, the 1960 "Tendrils," we realize that here are memories that will endure forever, memories to be added to and cherished eternally. The training and experiences of our elementary and high school days are the keys to the future, representing the preparation for the years to come. Thus we, the fifty-second graduating class of the John I. Burton High School of Norton, Virginia, humbly but sincerely, present this contribution of our memories to the Burton lore.

A mighty Fortress is our God,
    A Bulwark never failing;
Our Helper he amid the flood
    Of mortal ills prevailing:
For still our ancient Foe
    Doth seek to work us woe;
His craft and power are great,
    And armed with cruel hate,
On earth is not his equal.

Did we in our own strength confide,
    Our striving would be losing;
Were not the right Man on our side,
    The Man of God's own choosing:
Dost ask who that may be?
    Christ Jesus, it is he;
Lord Saboth his Name,
    From age to age the same,
And he must win the battle.

And through this world, with devils filled,
    Should threaten to undo us;
We will not fear, for God hath willed
    His truth to triumph through us:
The Prince of Darkness grim,
    We tremble not for him;
His rage we can endure
    For lo! his doom is sure,
One little word shall fell him.

That word above all earthly powers,
    No thanks to them, abideth;
The Spirit and the gifts are ours
    Through his who with us sideth:
Let goods and kindred go,
    This mortal life also,
The body they may kill:
    God's truth abideth still,
His kingdom is forever.

The running of Hoyt McConnell and passing of Richard Goodpasture earned Norton a tie. A Goodpasture to Quillen pass covered 39 yards to the 11 yard line. Duff scored on a 9 yard pass from McConnell. Norton, on a 52 yard pass from Goodpasture-to-Quillen, moved to the 3 yard line. Hoyt McConnell scored the touchdown, and Jerry Adams added the extra point.

Stands a school first rate,
And it is our Alma Mater,
Stately and Sedate.

Chorus

Hail! All Hail! our Alma Mater!
Hear the echoes ring;
Hail to thee, our Alma Mater!
Hail! All Hail! we sing!

Hail to thee, O Norton High School,
We'll always love you.
To your standards and your precepts,
May we all be true.
